Summary/Objective

Banquet staff get to work long before the guests arrive. They set up tables and chairs, and lay out the tablecloths and place settings. They may set up a beverage station or buffet. Once the guests arrive, the banquet staff serves plates of food to guests, then they remove the plates, as the courses are finished. They refill water glasses, and replenish the utensils and napkins, as necessary. After the guests leave, the banquet staff collects used linens, glasses, dishes and cutlery.
